Key Strengths:

Quiet Reflection Lunchtime club is really welcoming. The children feel safe and are enjoying the quiet area to reflect privately and share their thoughts with Mr Raybould and in small groups.

Collective worship is fun – the children enjoy the opportunities to join in.

Pupil Led worship is – The children love to lead the worships and talk about the worship themes that they are planning to lead on the playground during their free time.

Worship songs – The children enjoy the new songs and the words on screen.

Reflection areas present in each classroom

Areas for development:

Refresh reflection areas regularly to ignite curiosity for the children and encourage use.

Ensure candles are still being lit as a focal point for reflection during class based worship
